Comprehension Questions:

- 1) After the fight, Shane looked “at father and mother and me, and it seemed to me that it hurt him to see us there.” Why do you think it hurts Shane to see them?

- 2) How does Joe help carry Shane out of the saloon? What does this say about their relationship?

- 3) Why do you think Joe won’t let Grafton charge Fletcher for the damage?

- 4) What does Joe mean when he says, “Do you think I don’t know, Marian?”

- 5) He follows up the last statement by saying, “Don’t fret yourself Marian. I’m man enough to know a better when his trail meets mine. Whatever happens will be all right.” What does he mean by this?

- 6) What theme is being developed in this Chapter?
